

Explanation: Core assignments will be assessed by the rubric below. A total of 12 possible points can be awarded. For each category, 4 represents the best mark, and 1 the lowest.

Submissions: Submissions must be received by the stated deadline. Late submissions will be deducted 1 point of the 12 total points for each day after the deadline. The assessments will be made at the end of the semester. Once submitted, students may revise their submissions before the end of the semester if they choose. In this case, students should notify the instructor of their intentions to modify their submission.

Criteria/Marks	4	3	2	1
Completeness	The submission satisfies the requirements in complete	The submission satisfies all but 1 or 2 requirements	The submission contains substantial incompleteness of requirements	The submission is essentially incomplete of all requirements
Coherence	The submission is entirely logical and intention is clear	The submission is general logical with clear intention	The submission contains substantial confusion of logic and intention	The submission is essentially illogical and of no discernible intention
Comprehension	The submission is fully demonstrates comprehension and competence with fundamental concepts	The submission generally demonstrates comprehension and competence with fundamental concepts	The submission contains significant lapses of comprehension and competence with fundamental concepts	The submission entirely lacks comprehension and competence with fundamental concepts